Raja, a woman from the country, travels back in time and meets her future self. One day Raja falls down the road and dies. She comes by herself to the land of gods where she finds a giant statue. She tells the people that her sister had died and thus reincarnated back with her. She also tells them that she knows how to summon god from the sky and that she knows everything that happened in history. After several years of struggle she finally wins her wish and can summon a god. She decides to spend her life helping people to understand and overcome their fears. The world and its troubles are coming to an end. She travels with her two friend, Tami (Shivaad Ali), a former college student who moved to the country. She also has to face the challenges of her life as her father had died one minute later while she was sleeping. After years and years of hardship she and her two friend decided to go back home. She and Tami have to face the world around her through her travels. They travel to all different places where there are demons, and to a mysterious castle which has a curse. She needs the help of her friend and a new character named Anand, whom she cannot trust. But, it is also because of a prophecy that the story has been told of how the demons will rise again. She also needs a new friend which she finds that is a fairy girl named Jana..
